Oakland, CA., August 6, 2014 – The award-winning Piedmont East Bay Children's Choir (PEBCC) will hold placement auditions for boys and girls on Saturday, September 6 in Piedmont for new students wishing to join choirs.

PEBCC offers a robust and exceptional music and choral training program for boys and girls from the ages of 0 - 18 across three departments: Kinder, ages 0 - 3; Training, ages 4 and up; and Performing, grades 5 and up.

This season, over 300 students from over 100 schools throughout Alameda, Contra Costa, Solano, San Francisco and Marin counties are selected and will participate in one of our many classes and choirs, each offering age-appropriate music and singing curriculum, performance and tour opportunities. Placement auditions are by appointment only.

Please call 510.547.4441 or email our registrar at registration@piedmontchoirs.org to schedule an audition, and visit our website at piedmontchoirs.org for additional information about our programs including the Golden Gate International Choral Festival being held in July 2015!

Now celebrating its 32nd year, the Piedmont East Bay Children's Choir runs a comprehensive choral arts program for students ages 0–18. The program has 12 choirs, operates a music summer camp at Walker Creek Ranch in Marin County, and runs the acclaimed Golden Gate International Choral Festival. Its Concert Choir tours nationally each year, and the flagship group, Ensemble, tours internationally each year competing in festivals throughout the world. Last year, Ensemble took three gold medals and the Grand Prix at the International Youth Music Festival in Bratislava, Slovakia.

For more information about this comprehensive program for young singers, contact Piedmont East Bay Children's Choir, (510) 547-4441 or visit their websites at piedmontchoirs.org and goldengatefestival.org.
