

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Littlest Angels Sing Sweet Melodies - Piedmont East Bay Children's Choir's Training Department Recitals

Few experiences will warm your heart more than these delightful little concerts in which the younger singers of the Piedmont East Bay Children's Choir will share the music they've been learning. Free, family-friendly and personal, these are great events for kids who are wondering just what a choir is. Join the Training Department children and their families on December 7 at 2:00 and 5:00pm at Park Blvd Presbyterian Church, 4101 Park Boulevard, Oakland. Snack receptions follow the recitals.

The Training Department of the Piedmont East Bay Children's Choir offers girls and boys ages 6-12 weekly rehearsals, mini-concerts, workshops, and special events, as well as a yearly summer camp. Singers receive foundational education in music theory, sight singing, musicianship, stagecraft, personal expression, and so much more, all in a challenging and fun after school program. Award-winning music professionals lead the children toward proficiency and joy in music.

The acclaimed Piedmont East Bay Children's Choir has been offering children an outstanding program of choral training and performance since 1982. The Choir regularly collaborates with major Bay Area arts organizations such as the Oakland East Bay Symphony, the Mark Morris Dance Company, Berkeley West Edge Opera, and Volti. The Choir's comprehensive music curriculum provides students, ages 4-17, an exceptional education in vocal technique and music theory, while inspiring creativity and encouraging engagement with other cultures through its international touring program.
