

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

The Piedmont East Bay Children's Choir's Winter of the Animals

It's the winter of the animals! If your family loves cats, tortoises, mammoths, and funky chickens, and is looking for a fun Saturday afternoon outing, then the Piedmont East Bay Children's Choir's Winter Concert is just the ticket. Boys and girls of all ages will show their musical achievements from the fall semester in animal-themed songs, and the advanced group, Ensemble, will premiere several works they will tour with this summer when they join around 100,000 world voices at The Estonian Song Festival, Laulupidu.

The Winter Concert is one the best showcases of PEBCC's award winning ensembles. If your boy or girl loves to sing, come and hear the Winter Concert on Saturday, January 25, 2014 and then sign up to audition for the spring semester on Saturday, February 1, 2014 beginning at 9:00 AM. For an appointment, please call 510-547-4441 or visit the website at www.piedmontchoirs.org.

The acclaimed Piedmont East Bay Children's Choir has been offering children an outstanding program of choral training and performance since 1982. The Choir regularly collaborates with major Bay Area arts organizations such as the Oakland East Bay Symphony, the Mark Morris Dance Company, Berkeley West Edge Opera, and Volti. The Choir's comprehensive music curriculum provides approximately 350 students, ages 4-17, from over 100 schools in three counties an exceptional education in vocal technique and music theory, while inspiring creativity and encouraging engagement with other cultures through its international touring program. For more information about the Choir and its programs, call 510-547-4441.
